PREVIOUS MEETING MINUTES – 03/30/2016

COMMITTEE/TASK FORCE ACTIONS

- o Information/Research – Alice Masciarelli

Dr. Dake's Decision Analysis class presented its findings at the Steering Committee Meeting. Q & A followed. Presentation will be made available online.

- o PIT Count

PIT Count results were presented by Alonzo Peterson. Summary copies given to members. Discussion.

The committee discussed the 2017 PIT Count, the requirements for participation by HUD and the CoC, and that the project be a more collaborative project in the future. There was consensus that all the HUD funded agencies need to be involved. It was asked that the next count be inclusive of a youth count. Giving Hope, Inc. committed to being the lead for recruiting volunteers for the count.

Alice M. asked for a Motion that the 7 HUD funded agencies form a committee to lead the 2017 PIT Count effort. Sheila Harper seconded. Motion Carried.

The steering committee will recommend the HUD agencies form a committee and select a chair to lead the committee. Leslie Wisenbaker will organize the first meeting. The committee will be added to the monthly agenda to report.

- o Coalition Building – Coordinating Resources – Brenda Jackson

Bridging the Gap

Leslie Wisenbaker presented on behalf of Brenda Jackson Members discussed this program role in the coalition. Bridging the Gap needs a Co-Chair for the program.

Coordinated Access Network

Sheila Harper, Chair of the CAN group provided an update to Denton CAN. CoC will be adding new training to help support CAN implementation in the future. Discussion included the new emphasis by HUD to have CAN's and current local issues like the long delay of data entry into the HMIS. It was suggested that the CoC is recommending data entry personnel. THN's annual conference in September will include a CAN track.

Lewisville Resource Task Force

Jamey Kirby presented on behalf of Liz Buford. The group has adjusted some of the original goals for Lewisville. Priorities are to develop notifications of shelter openings for at facilities like MKOC and for transportation assistance. Next meeting is 5/18 at 8:30a

- o Advocacy – Christopher Mays

Media List.

Media List is approved with changes. Updates were made to page 2. Media information will only include DCHC activities. DCHC programs to be highlighted including the PIT Count, Lewisville Task Force, and Bridging the Gap.

- o Impact / Stakeholders – Stephanie Aguilar

United Way Homeless Leadership Team – Courtney Cross

Courtney announced that the Homeless Leadership Team will hold its first meeting May 5, 2016.
